How to Make Sure your Child Succeeds at School! gives you concise and brief one line guidelines to help you achieve this worthy goal. As with the rest of our Tips series there are no long sentences or heavy grammar to understand. Just plain, good one line pieces of advice. Everyone wants their child to succeed at school and this book will help you, give your child, an unfair advantage. You may not presently use the school system, but even so this material is still relevant no matter where in the world you are or what system you are using. I have been a teacher for over 20 years and have taught ages 3 to 18 so I know my subject. These hard hitting tips are full of practical steps which will help at school and at home. There are lots of things you can do to help your child in the school environment which will make them do well, make them fit in and be popular with their teachers. I make no excuse for some of the tips being so evident they do not need expanding but they are vital nonetheless.
