

Creating a Good Relationship

Destined to be a classic. The most practical self-help book on relationships I have seen. Discusses important, previously neglected health factors which can destroy a marriage. ?Michael Lesser, M.D., past president, Orthomolecular Medical Society A five-week program for making bad relationships good and good relationships even better. The manual is in two parts. 1) Assessing and improving human relationships. 2) Identifying the often unsuspected physical ailments that contribute to a large proportion of unhappy relationships and that often can be cured or controlled nutritionally (see page 201).
