

How to Get Stuff Done When Youd Rather Kill Yourself

Youve got the project in mind, maybe on paper, too. Your next step: get to HD. You freeze. What is wrong? The TV calls. McDonalds beckons. Does the dog need some attention? Anything but starting that project. Weve all been there. It may be as simple as making it to the dumpster with the trash bag. Or a big one, like cleaning out the closet. If you had the money to spend, youd rather pay than do that! With this book, youre going to find out the 6 steps to overcoming project freeze and have some fun. Break out the booze, sit down and start at square one: reading this book. You can start that project later. This book contains proven steps and strategies on how to get stuff done in spite of having so many reasons not to. When there are just too many things to be done, you dont have to kill yourself! Just follow these six easy steps: Panic, Pause, Prioritize, Push, Persist and Polish! Before you know it, youve accomplished everything.
