

Seven Children in the Sandbox: A True Story of Successful Family Blending

The process of blending two families into a successful unit is never easy. The challenges can seem overwhelming at times, but the rewards make it all worthwhile. Through this book, you can learn skills for successful family blending on your own journey. We will discuss the keys to making the family unit successful. Tom and I came into our marriage having both been divorced. While Tom had two children, and I four, we gathered the skills to create a successful family unit while adding number seven along the way. Did we have upsets and challenges on our path? Absolutely! But anything worth having is worth the effort. I have written this book to give you the insight as to our challenges and successes on our journey. The benefit of reading our story is to provide you with strength and encouragement to persevere knowing that it is possible to achieve success.
