Death and I is the intense and hilarious sequel of Saving Honor. Honor comes home to her familys lifeless bodies soaking in their own blood. The trauma consumes her, but with her fantastic super-human abilities she finds a way to go back and change what happened. Despite their lives being saved, Honor still remembers their lifeless corpses and cant come to see past it. In this sequel, Honor races to save her family, while trying to survive her emotions of horror from her recent trauma.

In order to deal with the racing situation, Honor begins to see an enemy that isnt there. Honor sees and speaks with Death.

This is a story of tragedy, suspense, and humour. This is a story of a young hero still discovering the amazing things she could do while alienating the loved ones that she remembered losing but still had.

Who killed Honors family? Why would they do it, and how can they be stopped from doing it again? (This book may be listed for Children but its really a Teens and Young Adult book)
