

Race, Class and Gender in Nineteenth-Century Culture

Many of the articles included in this volume focus on the issues of race and ethnicity with a specifically American examination of the concept of race. Others discuss Marx, Freud and the Jewish question in a similar context. The section on sex differences gives appropriate weight to French thinkers; and Part Four, 'From Rank to Class, includes assessments of the influence of Locke and Hegel. The editors introduction and the essays of Part One: Human Nature, supply a more generalised backdrop against which these issues may be considered. Contributors include: DAVID E. CARTWRIGHT, DONALD J. D'ELIA, SHLOMO AVINERI, FRANCIS E. KEARNS, FLAVIA ALAYA, DAVID M. POST and C.B. MACPHERSON.
