

When the Sun Climbs Over Popo

Based on a family the author met in Mexico, When the Sun Climbs Over Popo is about a year in the life of Marta, on the eve of her Quinceañera, 15th birthday. Marta lives in Zeca, a poor rural village under the volcano, Popocatepetl in the state of Puebla, Mexico. Woven into her story are descriptions of a year of fiestas and the rich culture of her family life. Marta is faced with the decision; stay in Zeca, marry and have babies and work hard or go to the big city to be a maid. It's a good day when the sun shines over Popo, says Marta as she remembers a year of fiestas in her village. Written as a social studies supplement for levels 5 - 12.
