

Dont Become a Christian

A brief essay discussing why someone may become a Christian. What causes someone to become a Christian? What effect would it have if someone told you, Dont become a Christian. Or if you prefer what would happen if someone said, Do become a Christian. Either statement in the end has an equal amount of influence. There arent mystical magical words of persuasion that will turn a person into or away from damnation. Abracadabra will not change water into wine any more than it will change a persons belief. Try as you might you cant make a volitional horse drink water. Your actions or inactions save no one.
