

On the Bit. Catherine: Romantic Thriller

Annette Kinnear invites her readers to join her in a thrill ride by introducing an adventure that truly does not fit in any one simple genre box. This novel is a thrilling, psychological, and a mysterious tale filled with dark twisted political plots by use of international powers as well as brilliantly perverted and torturous tactics that create a romantic illusion. Kinnear leads the reader into a page-turning exotic journey on a beautiful dark stallion. Atlanta Horse Connections

This book is a rollercoaster ride. And the reader sits in the front row. The horse rider in me cherished the educational presentation of finest Spanish riding. The woman in me tingled from its passion and sex. The adventurer in me delighted in the description of foreign countries and the nature scenes... Fine Spanish riding, packed into a thrilling novel! A young recruiter with a cryptic database; A beguiling kidnapper with a diabolical plan & dangerous sex appeal; And a black stallion with uncanny insight... ... All on collision course.

Catherine Zitgow is an attractive young headhunter who runs an exclusive search firm, placing professionals from science, engineering and technology. Her clandestine database raises the interest of a mysterious group of activists. Unknowingly, she descends into the world of biological warfare experts. As Catherine fights for survival and freedom, the triangle relationship between captor, hostage and horse grows at a furious pace and propels Catherine deeper and deeper into a world of crime, sex and global power struggles.
