

Getting Messy: A Guide to Taking Risks and Opening the Imagination for Teachers, Trainers, Coaches and Mentors

Written in accessible prose with inspiring exercises, Getting Messy shows how teaching and learning are creative endeavors in which we create space for the expansion of our knowing to happen. You will discover how to: Find your voice and own your inner brilliance; Lead a group with beginners mind; Uncover inspiration when you most need it; Recognize and utilize the creative wisdom in the room; and Turn the messy business of being human into the stuff that makes you grow. Shakti Gawain said, I loved Getting Messy! Its one of those gems that will guide you toward greater self awareness. Getting Messy is a must-read for teachers, trainers, coaches, mentors, and group facilitators. Parents, consultants, counselors, and others who work with people in meaningful ways will also find it helpful. Packed full of wisdom and insight, Getting Messy is a valuable resource for those who wish to expand the range of creative possibility in a range of diverse teaching and learning situations.
