

Early French Cookery: Sources, History, Original Recipes and Modern Adaptations

What culinary delights awaited the average wealthy French dinner guest in the late Middle Ages? This book combines a survey of medieval dining habits with recipes and menu suggestions. Covering all aspects of the dining process from the ingredients, methods of preparation and cooking, cooking and eating utensils, and the cooks and diners themselves, the authors look in turn at soups, sauces, meat dishes, poultry, fish, egg dishes, vegetables and desserts, with over 100 recipes for the modern cook and some delightful comic illustrations.
