

Surviving Cancerland: Intuitive Aspects of Healing

Kathleen O'Keefe-Kanavos is a three-time breast cancer survivor who used dreams to diagnose her illness. Surviving Cancerland is Kathleen's account of how she learned to connect with her physician-within through dreams, meditation, and prayer. Believing in her intuition, Kathleen used it to self-advocate a course of cancer treatment, often having to persuade her doctors to cooperate with her. Don't tell your Higher Power how big your problems are, Kathleen says. Tell your problems how big your Higher Power is! Work with your doctors, but never forget that the final decisions are yours. Kathleen hopes her story can help you make better choices, live a more fulfilling life, and discover your destiny. A nationally recognized inner-guidance and dream-work expert, inspirational speaker, and coach, Kathleen hosts health and spiritual radio programs, counsels callers to the R. A. Bloch Cancer Foundation hotline, blogs for Patheos and Om Times Magazine, and writes a cancer Q&A column for Cape Women Online Magazine. Kathleen has been married to the love of her life, Peter Kanavos, for thirty-plus years.
