

Finding Me

Sixteen-year-old Chloe Carmichaels perfect world is in chaos. Its not because she has a vision of her boyfriend murdered and then hes found dead exactly as foreseen. Its not because she suddenly has the ability to move objects when shes upset. Its kinda cool to close a door without touching it. And its most definitely not her overbearing mother who only cares about appearances. Chloe has already grown quite accustomed to her familys distance. So what has Chloe cringing in fear? Its having to become another person for a new group of people. She knows shes not perfect, but apparently she was in another life. In that other life, she was known as Amanda. Amanda was perfect. Chloe, not so much. Her new friends wont allow her to forget. Chloe struggles with a love that exposes the soul. Its a love that defies reason. Its a love that speaks to her heart and demands attention. Its the stench of impending death that hovers over her every move. Its that final threat as she tries to acclimate to a life of super human proportions. Its the enemy she cant see and doesnt remember. And most importantly, its never discovering who she really is that truly frightens her.
