Coverdell World Wise Schools. More than 45 years ago, then Senator John F. Kennedy challenged Americans to willingly serve their country to give two years of their life to the service of others and, without hesitation, Americans rose to his challenge. Since the Peace Corps beginnings in 1961, more than 180,000 have served as Volunteers. The mission of the Peace Corps is to help the people of interested countries in meeting their need for trained men and women; to help promote a better understanding of Americans on the part of the peoples served; to help promote a better understanding of other peoples on the part of Americans. The Peace Corps was officially established on March 1, 1961 with the number of volunteers and trainees to date totaling 182,000, and the total number of countries served now at 138. There are currently 7810 volunteers and trainees, with these statistics: gender: 58% female, 42% male; marital status: 91% single, 9% married; minorities: 16% of volunteers; age: average 28 years old; median 25 years old; volunteers over 50: 6% of volunteers; oldest volunteer is 79.

President John F. Kennedy: February 21, 1961 I hope that when the Peace Corps ultimately is organized, and young men and women go out around the world, that they will place their greatest emphasis on teaching; and secondly, that they will learn themselves far more than they will teach, and that we will therefore have another link which binds us to the world around us.

Remarks to delegates to a Youth Fitness Conference March 1, 1961 Life in the Peace Corps will not be easy. There will be no salary and allowances will be at a level sufficient only to maintain health and meet basic needs. Men and women will be expected to work and live alongside the nationals of the country in which they are stationed - doing the same work, eating the same food, talking the same language. But if the life will not be easy, it will be rich and satisfying. For every young American who participates in the Peace Corps - who works in a foreign land - will know that he or she is sharing in the great common task of bringing to man that decent way of life which is the foundation of freedom and a condition of peace.
