

Pregnancy and Birth: The Conspiracy of Silence: Essential Details they Conveniently Forget to Tell You

An extremely frank and insightful guidebook that breaks the Code of Silence among the sisterhood of women. No longer should new mothers have to wrestle inside themselves, feeling emotionally alone, inept or a failure. Are you perplexed and distressed over changes in your body, energy levels and lack of libido through pregnancy, or feel completely unhinged by the rapid way in which your life is about to change? Then you are not alone. Eighty percent of new mothers feel shocked over how radically their life is changing and feel as though other women have betrayed them somehow by not helping them prepare mentally and emotionally. Medical approaches deal with the physical practicalities and overseeing each step, yet the inner world of the woman is left untended. Raging doubts on parenting success fills a pregnant woman's mind, body changes confuse and relationship dynamics alter. A whole host of anxiety builds up surrounding the looming birth along with a constant stream of questions needing answers.

It's Time the Code of Silence was Broken. Celia draws on over 20 years of experience in a counseling and natural therapies clinic listening to thousands of distress stories from both men and women. It is her frank and candid writing style that makes you feel like she is talking directly to you. I embrace you in the circle of sisterhood and share my life knowledge with you. May it help appease some of your deepest anxieties and let you welcome your child into the world with confidence and excitement. Celia Fuller
