

Perfectly Twisted (Book 1) Young Adult Romance

Celine has recently lost her father in a terrible car accident, which in turn led to her mother's loss of mind. She is all alone now, without a single sibling or parent to comfort her. But she soon finds the comfort she's seeking in the face of Daniel, who is unlike anyone she has ever met. Celine: We weren't meant to be together, just like fire doesn't belong with water. Yet, they say opposites attract. Since the moment we laid eyes on each other, he was my poison and I his sin; he was my antidote, my elixir of life and I his means of liberation, his road to salvation. He set chills to my body whenever those sapphire-blue eyes of his, which were as calm as the unperturbed surface of a lake and as passionate as the most aggressive of winter gales, came to rest on me. He caressed me with his corrupting gaze, glaring into the deepest reaches of my soul and stripping me to the bone as he did so.
