

Horse Tales for the Soul, Volume 5

Volume 5 brings you 46 new, true stories from horse lovers around the globe, including Deb Grangers funny, heart warming story of how she went to a dude ranch with some girlfriends in her 50s after not riding a horse for decades. It is a funny story with a touching ending you will love! Less Debbie Granger has an amazing story of how, in her 50s, she decided to go to a dude ranch for a week with some girlfriends. Of course, Deb hadn't been in the saddle in decades so you can imagine how sore she was after that first day's ride. However, not only did Deb have the time of her life, but she fell in love with the plain ranch horse she was paired up with. She struck up a friendship with that animal that lasted for several years. What is most amazing about Debs story is that she e-mailed me after the book was published and we were preparing to do the audio version, that she was thankful that we had published her story so that she could leave something behind for the grandchildren she didn't already have, just in case she wasn't here to greet them when they did. She wanted them to know two things: their grandmother had spunk and THEY came from good stock! Debs statement sums up why we did the Horse Tales for the Soul series in the first place. After realizing how important horses had been to my own development as a woman, I wanted to share that experience with others and thanks to people like Deb and hundreds of other horsemen from around the globe, we have accomplished that goal. Volume 5 brings you 46 true stories that are sure to touch your heart. Some will have you laughing out loud, others will remind you of your own experiences in your life while still others will bring a tear to your eye, but you will love all the stories within these covers!
