

The Life-Plan Of Creation vs. An Astrology Report (Creation Of Happiness: Purpose of the Soul Book 2)

Desires lead to destiny. The intention of this book is understanding the subconscious mind and how routine negative thinking leads to creation of difficulties in everyday life. While positive thinking helps in creation of happiness. The book aims at soul empowerment through awakening the soul's responsibility as the co-creator. The book gives examples of how to access the subconscious mind through using dreams and dream interpretation. It helps to break a mind set of feeling helpless against circumstances and inculcating the power to change, detach from the negative and rise as a soul of positive frequency. The mind of the primitive man blamed all his problems on the lack of rain. Subconsciously, the modern man's mind carries over the habit of feeling helpless and often blames his problems on external circumstances as plotted in his astrological report. This book is written to spread awareness that the astrological report is only an outline of the game of life, which is planned by the soul before incarnating on Earth. Difficulties are a part of the plan. Just as the driver of a car learns to balance better during obstacles, difficulties help the soul co-create better as being a part of the Creator. We feel helpless when we are unable to obtain success or objects of comfort as socially held prestigious. But, the helplessness is an illusion as the modern man has different needs than that of the primitive man. From our soul's perspective, the praise, money, respect, success or power we seek to gain through our efforts on Earth, are emotional experiences. The soul feels positive or negative through these external experiences but does not perceive them directly. It only reads these external aspects of life from an internal emotional scale. The individual life purpose, is a unique emotional experience of happiness that the soul seeks to accomplish during a specific journey on Earth. For an individual, incarnating, little soul, this purpose is the main reason for being born. The book explains that the soul incarnates with a life plan which is encoded in the subconscious mind of the person. This life plan is the same as the astrology report made after birth, but it is also felt intuitively by the soul. The life plan is to be interpreted at the level of feelings, which is the way the soul reads reality. The desires, ambitions and priorities of the person are chosen in alignment with destiny planned in terms of soul evolution to a higher positive frequency. Positive feelings indicate progress in the plan while negative energies or feelings in body or mind, indicate challenges to be overcome to achieve happiness, as the soul energy seeks, not as just defined by the body. The body is a vehicle of the soul and its needs only reflect desires of the soul to drive to a certain destination of resonating positive frequencies. The book compiles interpretations given by hypnotherapy and psychology with celestial wisdom.
