

Meditation for Beginners in 6 Easy Steps

Have you tried meditation in the past but found it difficult? Don't know how to start meditating? Do you worry if you are meditating correctly? Are you worried that it will take over your life? If you'd like to find out when and where to meditate, what to do when you hit problems and how to progress then read on. This meditation book will help you in the following ways. What if I can't sit cross-legged on the floor? Will I have to change my lifestyle too? What happens if I can't stop thinking when meditating? What happens if I'm interrupted while meditating? Can I still meditate while travelling? Plus more. Learn about all these things and more and in one book that is easy to read and gives practical advice for those new or returning to meditation. I have been meditating for many years and mostly learnt as I went along but I got there in the end, and I'm still learning, but there are things I wish I knew BEFORE I started! I didn't go to many classes and have never been to a retreat so learnt the hard way, when you don't know why things go wrong it can be tough to deal with when on your own. Your meditation progress will go a lot smoother if you are better prepared by learning from other people's mistakes. This book is aimed at anybody (as we all have the ability to meditate) whether you are meditating for the first time or not. Everybody is learning, I definitely am, and I still pick up good tips as I practice. Everyone wants more out of life. Everyone wants to say yes I look after my wellbeing. Actions speak louder than words. Forewarned is forearmed. Are you ready to make a decision now? So before you go off half-cocked prepare yourself and enjoy how your meditation practice progresses from nothing into a regular something that impacts on your life as a whole. Stop wading through information from all different sources and enjoy your meditation time without the stress of the
