

After the Ark: Eli and Ella the Little Elephants - Children of the King!

Eli and Ella the Little Elephants are sure to be useful resource for foster parents, childrens homes, orphanages, case workers, grandparents, extended family, teachers, pastors, mentors, and anyone else that desires to help and encourage orphans or foster children. Eli and Ella, though fictional characters, share real life experiences from a foster care or childrens home that will relate to any child facing this issue. This book is a must read for any type of foster care or orphan situation and it provides Biblical instruction for these often hopeless circumstances. In Children of the King every reader will be instructed on what it means to be a child of God, which is the first and most important step to success on anyones life journey. After the Ark is a ministry of Life Factors Ministries which exists to spread the love of God to children of all backgrounds and family situations. The After the Ark books introduce encouragement and hope through teaching Biblical principles to every young boy and girl! Sean and Jackie Teis are the founders of Life Factors Ministries. Through which they are spreading hope and help to hurting homes through Biblical tools, speaking, and mentoring. For more information or to find more resources please visit lifefactors.org.
