

Competitor Analysis Journal

In this journal you can record important details of every competitor in your weight division. If you ever draw them in competition, you will know, ahead of time, everything about them. There is room to record details such as: - If your opponent is left or right handed - Are they tall, skinny or short and stocky? - What gripping strategy do they use? - What are their main tachiwaza and newaza techniques? - Do they rely on speed or strength? - What are their obvious strengths and weaknesses? In addition to the Competitor Analysis Journal there is also a competition reflection journal. Use this journal to reflect on every tournament you enter to ensure you are fixing your errors and becoming a better Judoka.
