Summer Romance at its Best! Amys world is turned upside down when she learns that shes moving from London to San Diego. Amy is smart, loves to draw, and is somewhat naive. The boys in her London school never gave her a second look. Beautiful and popular Gina takes Amy under her wing and suddenly Amy is thrust into the limelight of popularity at her new California school. Amy learns that she likes being one of the popular girls and has a hard time saying no to whatever Gina wants to do. So the day that Gina suggests that they take surfing lessons with the hottest guy in the school, Jesse, Amy has no choice but to agree. Can Amy trust Gina? Are her intentions genuine, or is there another reason shes befriended the new girl?? This is a stand alone clean romance short story.
