ONE REASON WHY YOU MUST SUCCEED

Take a look at the photo of the squirrel on the cover page of this book. Do you think the squirrel can eat that? From where do you think hes got the self believe, as to feel so confident to hold on to such a big meal? That photo highlights one thing, and that is: All that man will ever require to enjoy life and become success in finance, relationship, health and happiness is RIGHT WITHIN MAN. Now, how do you see life? Do you think that you can succeed in this life? Irrespective of what your perspective is - life is for the sole purpose of personal growth, success and happiness. The meaning you extract from what you see, hear and experience is not the whole truth, especially when these reflect unpleasant situations. Why? Because there is always two complementing sides to everything. Two sides that makes up the whole. Male or female, tall or short, clean or dirty, day or night, healthy or ill, single or married, alive or dead, and finally, rich or poor. Its I alone who is, to a large extent, responsible for the kind of experiences which color my life. Truth be told, I determine the experiences by the way I interpret and react to events. If youre ill, you can become healthy; if youre poor, you can become rich, and if youre single, you can become married - because there are always two complementing sides to everything. So, just because your life reflects a part of the two sides, does not guarantee that you will remain there. You can only remain there if you so chose to. Based upon what you see and experience, do not judge or pin your life to the half of the whole. If someone who was once poor, uneducated and without skill can become rich, then you can! If someone once ill and condemned by Doctors can become healthy, so too you can! If someone once single can find love and companionship, so you can. And if someone who in spite of the odds of environment and lifes challenges can become successful and fulfilled, so you can too! There's absolutely no reason why they can, and you can't. Knowledge is the key! An understanding of who you are and why you have a desire to live your life in a particular way of choice is a must for you, if you are to enjoy a well rounded growth, success and a fulfilled life. It is for the purpose of that knowledge, that's why you have this book. Do give your concentrated attention to its study, for it holds the truth to life that will set you free. Thank you!
