

Letting Go With Love: The Grieving Process

Life and grief go hand in hand. The process of grieving is the way we heal emotionally from loss and change. The process of grieving involves releasing old ways of thinking and feeling and finding new ways to get on with our lives. This is a supportive easy-to-read guidebook for everyone in the family. It is comprehensive and has chapters on death of a spouse, a child, parents, siblings, friends and lovers, before and after birth. It also covers the dying process and death of ones self at different times in the life span, as well as a chapter on suicide. This best selling book has sold over 210,000 copies worldwide.
