

Forced to Shoot: A Comprehensive Guide to Surviving the Aftermath of a Deadly Force Confrontation

You have learned to defend yourself and your family, and survive a deadly force confrontation. But have you learned to survive the criminal justice system with your freedom intact? How do you protect your family if you end up in prison for 20 years? How do you provide for your family if you are wiped out financially from defending criminal charges and lawsuits? FORCED TO SHOOT A comprehensive guide to surviving the aftermath of a deadly force confrontation will answer these questions and give you the knowledge you need to survive the aftermath of a deadly force confrontation with your freedom and your finances intact. Some of the topics covered include:

The legal aspects of self-defense and protecting the home that you must know
How to assess deadly force scenarios and prove a claim of self defense
Analyzing state statutes dealing with self-defense and the justifiable use of deadly force
Making the 911 call, and its critical role in the ensuing aftermath
How to deal with responding police, investigating detectives and attorneys
Exposing the dirty tricks that the press and prosecutors use, and how to neutralize them
Civil liability and dealing with lawsuits related to lethal force confrontations
FORCED TO SHOOT is a must read for any responsible gun owner. Written by a veteran Chicago P.I. and an Attorney, this book is critical to understanding and clarifying the intricacies of self-defense law, no matter where you live.
