

A Walk Atop America

In A Walk Atop America, Douglas Butler chronicles his quest to scale the highest geographical point in each of the 50 United States. Some state summits were easy Floridas highest point is a 345-foot-high sandy knoll; Delawares is a suburban intersection. Other peaks tested Butlers stamina and resolve. Californias Mt Whitney required a 22-mile hike. To reach the top of Alaskas Mt. McKinley, Butler endured Arctic storms and minus 20-degree temperatures. Throughout this book, Butler intersperses climbing narratives with the tales of the places he visited and the people he met.
