

Time Management

Why Worry about Time Management? At the end of the day, are you bitter about the things you still have to complete things that are going to take personal and family time? Are you exhausted from trying to get everything completed and frustrated at all the interruptions that made it impossible to get your to do list completed? Do you feel ineffective because you cannot accomplish everything with the degree of thoroughness you'd like? Are you losing self-confidence and sleep over the things you aren't able to do? Is your home life suffering because all you ever seem to do is work? These are the reasons you should worry about time management.
