

Street Food (Italian Edition)

Cinquanta ricette nazionali ed internazionali di cibo di strada, da realizzare facilmente a casa propria. La nota blogger culinaria Rita Tersilla, cuoca della food community la cucina di D di Repubblica, ha riscoperto e raccolto in un libro di ricette sapori e modi di mangiare rimasti invariati nel tempo, nonostante le continue proposte ed invasioni delle grandi catene commerciali e dei fast food. Dalla farinata genovese al filetto di baccala, dalle arancine siciliane ai fritolini veneti, dai baba ai cremini, alle zeppe di S. Giuseppe, fino ai Croque Monsieur citati anche da Proust. Nelle pagine anche un'intervista all'imprenditore buongustaio Stefano Callegari, acclamato pioniere della nuova era degli sfizi pret-a-manger.
