

Consciousness, Knowledge, and Ignorance: Prakasatmans Ellucidation of Five Parts (Treasury of the Indic Sciences)

The first English translation of the First Section (Prathama Varnakam) of the Section on Inquiry (Jijnasadhikaranam) of the Panacapadikavivaranam, a Sanskrit commentary offering a systematic exposition of Advaita (nondualistic) Vedanta from the Vivarana perspective. The central question concerns the nature of ignorance, or not-knowing, and its relation to knowing. It discusses how ignorance obstructs the nature of reality; the locus and support of ignorance; and whether ignorance is a positive entity. Includes a detailed introduction, transliterated text, translation, and explanatory notes. Published by American Institute of Buddhist Studies (AIBS)
